Saturday Morning
April 17

The Script:

Salutations! As you and your child arrive at "truly a wonderful place," Zuckerman Farm (the Jefferson Theatre), you will be greeted by a barnyard full of baby farm animals, even the Humble Pig Wilbur and his friend Charlotte will be there.

After feeding and petting the barnyard bunch, children will "witness a miracle" as they enjoy Beaumont Main Street's County Fair, complete with arcade games and tons of favors. Be prepared for lots of giggling during the pig race. The first snout across the finish line wins! Plan to participate in face-painting and pose for a photo of your child as he or she magically appears next to Wilbur on the movie poster shown above. Wilbur is "some pig!" You will always remember this "radiant" Saturday adventure!

The magic continues on the stage of the 1927 Jefferson Theatre. Experience Breakfast or Lunch with the stars, Fern and Homer Zuckerman. Your child will enjoy their breakfast or lunch sitting on stage, a rare treat! The historical auditorium with its rich colors and the magnificent glittering chandelier will leave your children mesmerized!

Breakfast is fresh and includes milk or juice, fruit turnovers, muffins and bananas! A picnic lunch features hot dogs, chips, juice and animal crackers.

When the big screen is lowered, Zuckerman's farm and all its charming characters come to life in the 2006 version of the children's classic, "Charlotte's Web."
